

AREIM

REAL ESTATE INNOVATION

Part-time internship during fall 2019

- Nordic real estate fund manager
- Founded in 2003 as operating partner for Blackstone
- Raised three funds with total equity of ~9 BSEK from local and global institutions
- Invest in offices, retail and residential properties
- Team of 40 professionals

- You are looking for a dynamic internship where you will take part in various projects involving real estate acquisitions and divestments
- You like financial modelling and analyzing both macro and micro
- You speak Swedish and English and are used to working with Excel and PowerPoint

- As an intern you will be involved in sourcing new deals and help out in investment underwriting, due diligence, debt financing and more
- You will work ~15 hours per week on average along your studies with flexibility for you to fix exams etc.

- To apply send your CV, cover letter and grade transcript to internship@areim.se
- Apply before 3 March 2019

